

Our 2023 GRATITUDE LIST

Clients and colleagues who embrace "being human," and who allow the fun and goofiness of life to play alongside the serious business of work – Christine

Working with people who rally around one another and strive to help each other be the best versions of themselves – Jen

Being given the continuous opportunity to learn new things, the space to adapt to an ever-changing world, and the chance to meet and work with incredible people along the way – Jessica

A team that brings an incredible and surprising range of talents, skills, and experiences – Kate

All the laughter – Lance

The opportunity to work with and learn from some incredibly smart, fun, and creative humans – Meg

A team that embraces the fearlessness of what we do

The opportunity to connect and reflect at a cabin in Vermont for our annual company retreat

Fun and down time in the Rockies and on the Mississippi when traveling to conferences

Clients who feel like friends, and a team that feels like family

